

Kitten Visits are generally in a series of 2-3 to complete full vaccination and monitor growth.

Treatment	Why Is This Important?	Visit 1 6-9 weeks old	Visit 2 12+ weeks old	Visit 3 16+ weeks old
Kitten Exam	Monitoring correct growth and development.	X	X	X
FVRCP	Protects against common, contagious, and fatal diseases	X	X	X
Calicivirus	Very contagious. 50% fatal		X	X
Leukemia	100% Fatal disease of cats.		X	X
Rabies vaccination	Required by state law. 100% fatal. Contagious to people.			X
Parasite Prevention	Prevent intestinal parasites, heartworms, fleas and ticks:	X	X	X
	Monthly liquid application for heartworm, flea, tick and dewormer; Revolution Plus
	For cats under 5 pounds heartworm, flea and dewormer monthly liquid application.
	Wearable flea & tick protection; Seresto collar

All medical procedures including but not limited to surgery, anesthesia, vaccinations and medications have risks and can cause adverse reactions. By signing this form I am acknowledging that the risks of the above procedures have been explained to my satisfaction. Therefore, I consent and agree to pay for all surgical and medical treatment necessary to treat and care for <animal> during <his> visit.

Payment is required at the time of service.

Cash, Credit/Debit, CareCredit are accepted forms of payment

CareCredit is available, subject to credit approval. (www.carecredit.com)